Winner—Br. f, by Esher—Miss Nailer (trained by R. W. Walden).
Went to post at 2:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Miss Nancy ran a fast game race and received the benefit of a strong finish and that won for her as Cyprienne was wearing her down at the end. The latter displayed improvement on the fast track and her race was a good one. McGonigle, off poorly, closed a big gap, finished fast and is worth remembering when with good rider up. Evelyn Arnold showed early speed, but tired and was plainly short. Honey Boy made up some ground in the stretch, then tired. Miss McKenna was eased up in the stretch when beaten.
Scratched—38373 Listaway, 99.
Overweights—Evelyn Arnold, 1 pound; Miss Nancy, 1; Alcon R., 1.
Miss Nancy, show, 1 to 2. Cyprienne, show, evens. McGonigle, show, 5 to 1.

Winner—Br. c, by The Judge—Sacharisa (trained by M. Mitchell).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Sacharisa has developed into quite a stayer. Always speedy, he gamely stood a drive in the stretch to stall off Royal, but had much the best of the weights. Royal, off poorly, made up a lot of ground and his race was a good one. Invincible was plainly short and should improve on this showing. It was an exercise only for Articulate. The company being too speedy for him at the distance. He was worked out a half mile after the finish and outclasses this kind when right. Sister Juliet ran a fair race and is worth remembering.

OWENTON IN FORM.

A crowd second only to that of the opening day was present yesterday and witnessed some excellent racing. The track was in good shape and fast time was made in the various races.

Owenton's performance in the fourth race, a dash of one mile and fifty yards, was by far the feature of the racing. He opened at 4 to 5 in the betting, but constant backing before post time sent his price to 3 to 5. He won in a big canter and plainly showed that he is back to his good form of last spring. Antonius was suffered to run in the lead for the first six and a half furlongs where Dominick called on Owenton which passed to the front with a bound, winning as his rider pleased by three lengths. Antonius was much the best of the others, finishing twelve lengths before Rankin for second place. Rankin ran a dull race and probably shows best in mud or on a soft track. Felix Bard went well for six furlongs and then retired. Owenton is about at his best and should be a hard horse to beat from now on.

The day was replete with surprises, most of the favorites being bowled over. Bondage was supposed to be the best in the fifth race, a dash once around the course for three-year-olds and upward, and was made an odds-on favorite, but ran a very poor race failing to finish in the first three. At flag fall Tayon shot to the front and, displaying keen speed throughout, was never headed, winning easily by a half length from Dan McKenna which beat Pronta one for second place. Dan McKenna finished fast, but could not overhaul the winner. Pronta was tiring fast at the end and would have lost third place in a few more strides to Bondage. The latter made up much ground in the final quarter, but failed to show his usual rush at the end.

Don Domo and Judge Luthers were made equal first choices in the day's opener, a four and a half furlong scramble for two-year-olds, the former winning in a big canter, while the latter showed scant speed throughout and was beaten off at the end. Pocassat led by a fair margin until well straightened out for home, where Don Domo easily passed him, winning by three lengths, with Pocassat nine before Jerry Flanigan for second place.

Stem Winder, held at 2 to 5 in the betting in the second race, a spin of six furlongs for three-year-olds and upward, was beaten by Soothsayer, the well-backed second choice. To a poor start, Uranium, off flying, dashed at once to the front and opened up a gap of four lengths on Stem Winder, which he held until just before entering the last quarter, where Stem Winder closed up on even terms with him. In the final eighth Uranium fell away beaten and Soothsayer moved up fast, catching Stem Winder when a sixteen out and, outstaying him, won by a half length, the latter finishing six lengths before Uranium for second place. Too much use was made of Stem Winder in the first half mile and he had little left for the last eighth struggle. The others were never serious contenders.

Automaton, another 2 to 5 shot, went down to defeat, succumbing to Mimo in the third race, a five furlong dash for three-year-olds and upward. Mimo led by three lengths at the first quarter, where Automaton moved up fast and joined him, the two fighting it out sharply to the wire, where Mimo passed under first by a neck, with Lacache third, twelve lengths away. It was strictly a two-horse race throughout, Mimo being best at the weights.

Mi Reina proved to be the best in the last race, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds. She led by a slight margin over John J. Regan to the final quarter, where the latter moved up to her saddle girths. In the final eighth struggle, however, she outstayed him, winning by one length, with Sidney Sabath a poor third, four lengths back. It was a bad lot.

The betting was by far the heaviest since the opening day, most of the winners being well backed. The track should be at its best today in case no rain falls.

The hearing set for yesterday in the case of "Kid" Weller, charged with poolselling at the Lakeside track, was postponed until Saturday.

Fred Foster, who will handle McChesney and Dick Bernard for E. E. Smathers the coming season, passed through Chicago yesterday en route to Minneapolis to visit relatives. Foster stated that the horses would be shipped at once from Memphis to Hawthorne and that they would be raced on the local tracks until the Washington Park meeting was over. After that they will be sent east and raced there for the remainder of the season.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Mollie T. outbroke her horses and spreadeagled them. She was much the best and won easily. Ben Hullum was off well, but fell back and seemed to suffer from poor handling early, but came fast through the stretch. Vicie Vance was pinched off on the turn. Lelia Barr showed speed, but was short. Parnassus quit at the end.

Scratched—37989 Cousin Rose, 93.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Travers displayed the most early speed and led easily to the stretch, where he was tiring and barely lasted long enough to win. Chamblee ran an excellent race under inefficient handling and would have won with a stronger rider up. Deutschland ran a good six furlongs and quit badly in the stretch. He is said to be suffering from bad feet. Barkemore finished well.

Overweights—Chamblee, 3½ pounds; Ben Lear, 2.

He was kept out of the early pace and came with a rush at the end. Aimless showed the most early speed, but failed to stay when challenged. Optimo was taken back and then made his run too late. Sarilla caught the barrier in her mouth at the start. Socapa showed a flash of early speed.

Went to post at 3:57. At post 13 minutes. Start perfect. Won easily; second the same. Elastic was much the best. He waited on Sylvia Talbot to the stretch and passing her with a rush won going away. He looks and runs like a good racehorse. Sylvia Talbot showed great speed, but failed to stay. Delagoa was outrun from the start and did her best. Maud Gonne's heavy impost anchored her, but she hung on gamely throughout. Crimean finished resolutely.

 Winner—B. g. by Racine—Pow Wow (trained by F. Brown).
 Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Potente was easily the best at the weights, was under restraint all through the stretch and could have won farther off. Ethics was shut off on the turn into the backstretch and closed up in the stretch when a furlong from home, but tired and had to be whipped out. Torchlight's race was a good one and she can win in slower company. Silurian tried to bolt in the run to the first turn and went very wide and tired in the stretch run. Dark Planet was outclassed.
 Scratched—38341 Ben Howard, 101.
 Overweights—Torchlight, 1 pound.

 Winner—B. f. by Filigrane—Issaquena (trained by W. Rollins).
 Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Fickle got off running and that won for her as she tired badly in the final furlong and only got home through Burns' vigorous finish. Miss Eugenie needed the race to fit her, is a likely youngster and would have won with riders reversed. Australina closed up very fast after running green in the first part of the race and should improve. Reverberate quit after going a half mile. All Colors was high in flesh.
 Scratched—38490 Miss McKenna, 108.

 Winner—B. c. by Dr. Rice—Frances D. (trained by F. Van Meter).
 Went to post at 4:25. At post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Frank Rice made up a tremendous amount of ground, showed the most speed through the stretch and would have won farther off with a good rider. Star and Garter also made up much ground and ran an excellent race. Rostand was used up in racing with True Blue, but stood the stretch drive gamely. Cranesville ran well. The route was too far for True Blue and he quit badly under the whip. Courtenay was pocketed in the middle of the field all the way. Pittacus was repeatedly interfered with. Alado bolted to the fence at the stretch turn.
 Scratched—38072 Black Diana, 91; 38434 Spring Silk, 106; 38403 Graden, 108; 38240 Cherubim, 95.

 Winner—B. c. by Sam Lucas—Illyria (trained by D. Carter).
 Went to post at 4:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Illyria is in good form, was best and was under restraint nearly all the way. Courtmaid closed up fast in the final furlong and outlasted Alan in a sharp drive. Alan did not display as much speed as usual, but finished well. Nevermore ran poorly and is probably overated. Athlana showed plenty of speed, but was not up to the route and was eased up in the last hundred yards.

 Winner—Ch. h. by Candelmas—Evangelina (trained by A. Martin).
 Went to post at 2:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Lone Fisherman steadily improved his position from a poor start, and drawing clear of the field when a furlong out cantered home and was much the best. George Dewey saved ground on the turns and ran a game race. July Gip closed up fast at the end and was badly ridden. Bedner failed to stay today owing to excessive early use. Castake, away running, went a good seven furlongs and is improving. Bernota failed to stay on the hard going. Fairbury was very sore in his preliminary.

 Went to post at 2:38. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. The Cure got away running and displayed a superior turn of speed, taking a long winning lead early. He was tiring at the end, but was probably best and should improve. Alamansor, away flatfooted and beginning slowly, closed a big gap in the stretch and was fast wearing the winner down at the end. Emil finished fast. George Berry is improving. F. E. Shaw, away badly on the extreme outside, went hopelessly wide, but made up ground.

 Went to post at 3:03. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Sly was lucky and skillfully reserved and made good with a winning stretch run, just getting up in the last stride. Dollie Wiethoff, away in her stride, forced the pace throughout and was best, but lost through a weak finish and swerving out at the end. Aunt Polly worked through a rough early journey and came through next to the rail in the last quarter and seemed the winner in the last sixteenth, but failed right at the end. Lou Clieved, badly ridden and messed about, went hopelessly wide on the stretch turn. Yrsula was a sharp contender for six furlongs and is worth remembering. Montana Peeress was badly ridden and is out of place in sprints.
